

SUBMISSION AND REVIEW PROCEDURE
of the articles to the journal The study of Security

Text submission procedure

1. Texts sent for submission must be prepared in accordance with the principles of editorial ethics and requirements, published on the website of the journal www.zeszyty-bn.apsl.edu.pl
2. All texts are submitted electronically through the email address of the editorial board secretary provided on the website and in the paper version of the journal.
3. The texts are published in Polish and in congress languages.
4. The text is subject to internal review by the Editorial Board of the journal, and then sent for external review.
5. The Editorial Board reserves the right to abbreviate, adjust the text and choose to print the submitted illustrative material.
6. Each Author waives all claim of copyright in the text and makes the waiver of the fee for the published text, as well as a statement about compliance with the principles of editorial ethics. If necessary, a response to the reviewer's detailed opinion is also submitted.

Text review procedure

1. At least two independent peer-reviewers who are outside the parent unit represented by Author(s) of the article are appointed for review.
2. During the reviewing procedure, the double view preview is applied, i.e. the reviewers and the Author do not know their identity.
3. In order for the text to be published, each article must receive two positive reviews from independent reviewers. In the case of one positive and one negative review, the article is not addressed to the third reviewer.
4. In the case of two negative reviews or one negative, the text is not submitted for printing, of which the Author is also notified.
5. If one of the two required reviews is conditional, i.e. the reviewer allows the text to be printed, provided that significant changes are made and re-submitted for final review, the corrected text is sent to the reviewer who issued the review.
6. In cases of doubt, arising after obtaining a review or responding to the Author, decisions are made by the chairman of the editorial board - the editor-in-chief in consultation with the chairman of the academic board.
7. The review is issued in writing and ends with an unequivocal conclusion as to whether the article can be published or rejected.
8. The list of reviewers is published on the journal's website and on the editorial page of the journal in paper format.
